

Simultaneous Fork Positioner

Simultaneous Fork Positioners - Load Protectors used for forklifts could help reduce pricey chipping, scuffing, marring and scratching by way of providing a cushioned non-slip surface between the forks and product. These kinds of attachments can be moulded according to OEM conditions from premium polyurethane. It is extremely fast to install the Load Protectors because they fit right on top of the standard lift truck blades with mounting hardware.